Admission Information and Application

Graduate School of Marine Science and Technology
Tokyo University of Marine Science and Technology

Welcome to the Tokyo University of Marine Science and Technology - TUMSAT

Doctoral Courses for International Students

TUMSAT offers the following two Doctoral degree course programs for international students. Graduates are awarded either a Doctor of Marine Science degree or a Doctor of Engineering degree from TUMSAT.

Doctoral Course:

1. Course of Applied Marine Biosciences
2. Course of Applied Marine Environmental Studies

The programs specialize in the following study areas:

Course of Applied Marine Biosciences

- 1) Applied Bioscience
- 2) Advanced Food Science and Technology
- 3) Applied Bio-engineering

Course of Applied Marine Environmental Studies

- 1) Marine Ecosystem Studies
- 2) Ocean Science and Technology
- 3) Applied Ocean Engineering
- 4) Marine Safety Technology
- 5) Logistics Engineering
- 6) Marine Machinery and Systems
- 7) Industrial Policy and Culture
- 8) Marine Exploring and Utilization

《Security export control》

Pursuant to the Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Act in Japan, "TUMSAT Regulations for Security Export Control" is stipulated. Strict control with respect to transfer of technology and cargo export is required in admission screening of international students.

In cases regulated items or transactions are applicable, your designated research activities and education programs may be limited.

Please be aware of such restrictions and consult a prospective supervisor before applying.

For more information on security export control, please refer to "Security Export Control" on the METI website.

Doctoral Course:

In the doctoral course of the Graduate School of Marine Science and Technology, we seek students who can flexibly respond to the times and society and creatively confront various global-scale issues related to the oceans in order to solve them, and who have the drive and capability to pioneer leading-edge areas in the marine field and the fields of its related industries.

Course of Applied Marine Biosciences:

We seek students who aim for solutions to various issues pertaining to applied bioscience, such as living marine resources and food resources, and furthermore the conservation and sustainable utilization of same, who are interested in research into the elucidation of the functionality of these or the elucidation or utilization of the characteristics and processes of biological activities, and who also have the drive to set themes pertaining to them by themselves and to be able to develop solutions and applications.

Course of Applied Marine Environmental Studies:

We seek students who have the ability to arrive at solutions to issues by means of addressing them using multilateral thinking, with regard to state-of-the-art science and technology pertaining to technologies for the investigation and conservation/restoration of marine environments and the highly efficient use of logistics and energy in marine transportation and harbors, from the viewpoint of understanding, conserving and using the oceans.

1. Number of Places Available

- For enrollment in October 2023

Course	No. of places
Course of Applied Marine Biosciences	Some
Course of Applied Marine Environmental Studies	Some

- For enrollment in April 2024

Course	No. of places
Course of Applied Marine Biosciences	19
Course of Applied Marine Environmental Studies	21

Note: The number of places indicates the total maximum number of students that will be admitted to the course, including those proceeding to the course from a Master's Course undertaken at the University as well as those admitted by passing the general admission, the admission for international students, and the special admission for full-time employees.

2. Admission Requirements

Those applying for admission to the Doctoral Course must meet one of the following requirements. (For those applying for enrollment in October 2023, replace “March 2024” in (1) to (8) below with “September 2023.”)

It is also a requirement for the application to contact the instructor to be instructed before applying and to obtain the consent of the instructor to take the examination.

- (1) Be a holder or be expected by March 2024 to be a holder of a Master’s degree or a professional degree (as defined in Article 5.2 of the Ministry of Education’s ordinance No. 9 of 1953 on school regulations; the same definition shall apply hereinafter).
- (2) Be a holder or be expected by March 2024 to be a holder of a Master’s degree or an equivalent of a professional degree outside Japan.
- (3) Be a holder or be expected by March 2024 to be a holder of a Master’s degree or an equivalent of a professional degree granted through a correspondence course provided in Japan by a foreign school.
- (4) Have completed or be expected to complete in Japan a graduate course provided by an organization positioned as an educational institution that provides graduate courses under the school education system of a country other than Japan and that is separately designated by the Japanese Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology, and be a holder or be expected by March 2024 to be a holder of a Master’s degree or an equivalent of a professional degree granted by that educational institution.
- (5) Have completed or be expected to complete a course provided by the United Nations University established based on the United Nations General Assembly resolution of December 11, 1972, as provided for in Article 1 Paragraph 2 of the Japanese Act on Special Measures Incidental to Enforcement of the “Agreement between the United Nations and Japan regarding the Headquarters of the United Nations University,” and be a holder or be expected by March 2024 to be a holder of a degree equivalent to a Master’s degree granted by the United Nations University.
- (6) Be recognized to have the same academic abilities as those who have a Master’s degree as a result of completing education at a foreign school, a designated educational institution as described in (4) above, or the United Nations University as mentioned in (5), and have passed the examination and screening as provided for in Article 16.2 of the Japanese Ministry of Education’s ordinance No. 28 of 1974 on the criteria for the establishment of graduate courses.
- (7) Be a person designated by the Japanese Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology (as provided for in the Ministry of Education’s notification No. 118 of 1989).
- (8) Be deemed to have the same or higher academic abilities as those possessing a Master’s degree or a professional degree through the eligibility screening for admission carried out by the Graduate School of the University, and be 24 years old by the end of March 2024.

Notes:

Those who apply for the admission for international students must meet one of the requirements described above and must also be “non-Japanese students who have entered/will be entering Japan with the intent of receiving education or conducting research at a university or other institution and are applying for enrollment at the Graduate School of this University.”

Those who apply for the special admission for full-time employees must meet one of the requirements described above and must have worked as a regular employee of a company or other organization for at least two years. (Note on term of employment: The term of employment shall not include a period during which the applicant was working while attending a regular course at university, but shall include a period during which the applicant was working as a regular employee during the daytime and attending university at night or completing a university course by correspondence. [Clarify your employment status (regular employment, etc.) in your certificate of employment.]

Item (7) above specifically means those who meet either of the following two requirements:

- (i) Have engaged in research for two or more years at a university, research institute, etc. after graduating from university, and are deemed by a graduate school to have the same or higher academic abilities as those possessing a Master’s degree or a professional degree based on past research results and others.
- (ii) Have engaged in research for two or more years at a university, research institute, etc. after completing a 16-year course under the school education system of a country other than Japan or after completing a correspondence course provided in Japan by a foreign school and thereby having completed 16 years of education under the school education system of a country other than Japan, and are deemed by a graduate school to have the same or higher academic abilities as those possessing a Master’s degree or a professional degree based on past research results and others.

Those who apply under requirement (6), (7) or (8) must undergo eligibility screening for admission and must undertake the necessary procedures for this. (Refer to the following section.)

※There is a possibility that the Admission schedule and Examination Method will be changed.

* Oral examination of Special admission for full-time employees may be conducted using remote conference systems etc for those who can't stay in Japan on the date. In that case we will contact the applicant from each course in detail.

7. Enrollment Date

- October 1, 2023 (Sunday) or April 1, 2024 (Monday) .

8. Enrollment Procedures

- September 8, 2023 (Friday) - September 19, 2023 (Tuesday)
Details will be mailed together with the notification of acceptance.

9. Notification of Results

The results of the entrance exams for the graduate course will be published online (<https://www.kaiyodai.ac.jp>) on September 5, 2023(Tuesday) at approximately 10:00 a.m. Successful applicants will also be notified by mail with the necessary forms for admission enclosed. Details of results will not be provided by telephone or other means. We will send a notification of acceptance and documents necessary for admission to the applicant.

10. Admission and Tuition Fees

- (1) Entrance examination fee: ¥30,000
- (2) Admission fee: ¥282,000
- (3) First semester tuition fee: ¥267,900
(Annual tuition fee: ¥535,800)

Note: In the event of any revision to admission or tuition fees, the revised fee will take effect immediately for every student enrolled.

- (4) Text fee, practical subject fee, Personal Accident Insurance fee for Students Pursuing Education and Research(PAS), and so on.

11. Prior Consultation for Applicants with Disabilities

If you have a disability, etc. that requires special consideration in regard to taking examinations or pursuing your studies after enrollment, please notify Admissions Section II of the Admissions Division no later than May 18, 2023 (Thursday)

If further consultation is deemed necessary, it will be organized as follows.

- (1) Consultation date: A date specified by the University up to May 25, 2023 (Thursday).
- (2) Consultation method: The applicant will be asked to submit a Consultation Application Form, diagnosis, etc. If necessary, a consultation session with the applicant or his/her representative will be held at the University.

12. Inquiries

If you have any questions concerning application or admission, please contact:
